Just to highlight the concern about our GREEN WASTE

“You will doubtless be aware that Shropshire Council are proposing to close 2 of the 5 recycling centres in Shropshire.

I am writing on behalf of Sustainable Bridgnorth, as we are concerned that closing any of the recycling centres will probably add more cost than it saves, increase pressure on the environment and cause significant inconvenience to residents. In particular, the amount of fly tipping will increase, at significant cost to many farmers as well as Shropshire Council's highways department.

We are encouraging people to complete Shropshire Council's survey and express their views (Garden Waste Charging and Household Recycling Centres Consultation Survey \(surveymonkey.com\)) and I expect that you may well be doing the same.

In addition, Sustainable Bridgnorth has been strongly encouraged by members and residents in the Bridgnorth parish and neighbouring parishes to raise a petition against the closure of the Bridgnorth household recycling centre. I must stress that we do not see this as a petition seeking for other recycling centres to close instead. We consider it unwise to close any of them.

I am therefore circulating this email to contacts from Shropshire Council's website for the parishes surrounding Bridgnorth, whose residents are likely to use the Bridgnorth recycling centre.

If you agree with the sentiments expressed, could you please encourage people to sign the petition at:

https://you.38degrees.org.uk/petitions/save-the-bridgnorth-recycling-centre?source=rawlink&utm_medium=socialshare&utm_source=rawlink&share=25967427-870c-4aa8-8d96-08e38f614c86.

We rely on donations to fund the valuable work of our

Youth Worker, Mark Williams

Mark has regular contact with young people in Idsall School, the main secondary school in the area as well as Year 6's in the Summer term to help with the transition to secondary school. He also works along side the churches in the greater area of Shifnal and Albrighton and runs open youth clubs with the help of volunteers, currently in Shifnal, but has plans to start one in Albrighton too.

SayYES is a relatively small local charity in the big scheme of things, And it would be great if you could make it your charity going forward. Just one statistic from last year "through Mark's work in Idsall, he made a meaningful impact in the lives of 76 young people and 49 attended the Youth Club."

UNDERSTANDING DEMENTIA

On how caring changes relationships.

Much of how you care will depend on the type of dementia someone has, but most importantly, a lot comes down to the type of person you are caring for. In ordinary life, we do change as we age - some of us can mellow, some can become more cantankerous - and it's certainly true that dementia adds another dimension to that melting pot of character. But the disease is still only one facet of the person. You must see the person first and not the condition, just as you would for anyone else.

The difference between being prepared or not can be life-changing, both for the person with dementia and those caring for them. Look at these quotes from carers interviewed for Dr Parveen's report:

It's really hard to know what a journey it's going to be, it's a good job that you don't know.

You don't know how much you're going to get angry. I suppose anger-anger and guilt are the two things that I was least prepared for, and yet I knew, I knew in the abstract anger and guilt are around hugely, but to actually experience the anger and guilt, sometimes the anger towards her after repeat question after repeat question and I would say, "Oh shut up, you know I've told you a hundred times," and she doesn't understand, she can't help what she's saying. But I would say, "Oh shut up." That takes you by surprise. I still feel guilty about so many things; I could have done things so differently, I could have coped for longer with her aggression than I was doing, if I'd known then; if I'd known what was coming, I would never have had her admitted to hospital, I would never have agreed. I could have protected her in so many ways, there's so many shoulds around; I should have done something and yet here, in the end, you are only human.
